CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1

(1) “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iasi is an Institution that Organizes Doctoral Studies, hereinafter referred to as IOSUD - UAIC. Doctoral studies are organized in the doctoral schools that operate within IOSUD - UAIC.

(2) The procedure for admission to doctoral studies includes the selection stages of for candidates on vacant doctoral student positions proposed by the Doctoral Schools.

(3) Admission to doctoral studies is based on a competition, organized in one or two sessions, in September, before the beginning of the academic year. The candidates are assessed by admission committees proposed by the Councils of the Doctoral Schools (CSD) and approved by the Council for Doctoral Studies (CSUD).

(4) A successful candidate may benefit of public funding for the doctoral studies. No student is entitled to public funding for a higher education programme more than once. Candidates who have been expelled from doctoral studies have the right to enter a new admission contest only as tuition fee candidates, regardless of the form of education. Upon registration, the candidates shall sign a document stating whether they have attended another doctoral studies programme. False statements lead to disqualification from the admission contest and application of the provisions of the Criminal Code.

Art. 2

(1) The number of vacant positions financed from public funding, for each doctoral field, for the academic year 2023-2024 will be distributed to the Doctoral Schools by the Executive Bureau of the Board of Trustees according to the number of vacancies/doctoral positions allocated to IOSUD - UAIC by Order of the Minister of Education. The number of tuition fee positions is established by the UAIC Senate.

(2) The Doctoral Schools Councils shall establish the number of doctoral positions for each doctoral supervisor in the respective doctoral school, in accordance with UAIC regulations and the proposals of the doctoral supervisors.

Art. 3

(1) The citizens of the European Union Member States (EU), of the European Economic Area (EEA) and of the Swiss Confederation (CH) may also apply for admission to the doctoral studies, under the same conditions provided by law for Romanian citizens, also with regard to tuition fees. The recognition of the studies completed abroad will be done by the National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas - CNRED, within the Ministry of Education. Information on the documents required and the procedure for recognition of studies for admission to doctoral studies can be found at www.cnred.edu.ro.

(2) The admission to doctoral studies and PhD training for non-EU international doctoral students shall comply with the provisions of OMECTS no. 6000/2012 and OMEN no. 3359MD/ 11.03.2013. Acceptance to studies and PhD training of foreign citizens starting with the academic year 2017-2018 is regulated by Order no. 3473/2017.

(3) Romanian ethnics living abroad ("Romanians everywhere") will be admitted following the admission contest organized according to the specific regulations and methodology approved by the Ministry of Education.

(4) For the admission to doctoral programmes conducted in the Romanian language, foreign citizens who have not completed high school/ bachelor's degree in Romanian, certified by diplomas/ diploma supplements, are required to present a certificate of language proficiency for the Romanian language issued by institutions authorized by the Ministry of Education.

(5) Any other provision regarding the admission to doctoral studies, communicated by Ministry of Education or approved by the University Senate, will be brought to the attention of the Doctoral Schools.

- Confirmation of places: September 28 and 29

Art. 6 (1) The admission to doctoral studies is conducted exclusively in previously accredited doctoral fields, in accordance with the legal provisions in force.

(2) The doctoral fields in which IOSUD – UAIC organizes doctoral studies are: Mathematics, Informatics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Geology, Geography, Environmental Science, History, Philosophy, Communication Sciences, Sociology, Political Sciences, Psychology, Education Sciences, Law, Philology, Accounting, Cybernetics and Statistics, Economics, Finance, Management, Marketing, Economics and International Affairs, Economic Informatics, Theology, Sports Science and Physical Education.

Art. 7 (1) Doctoral studies are organized in the form of full-time or part-time education, with public funding (subsidized by doctoral grants) or tuition fees the amount of which is established by the UAIC Senate, based on Doctoral School Councils' proposals, with the approval of the Executive

Bureau of the Board of Trustees. The doctoral studies organized at IOSUD - UAIC are of scientific type.

(2) In case public funding positions remain vacant in certain doctoral schools after the admission process, the IOSUD - UAIC management may decide to redistribute the remaining vacancies. In this case, at each doctoral school where these vacant positions are transferred, the rejected candidates who met the minimum admission criteria, can be enrolled in descending order of the average grade obtained in the contest, until the additional places are filled in, within the vacancies of the doctoral supervisors.

(3) If after this redistribution there are still vacant public funding positions, the IOSUD management may decide to organize a second admission session.

Art. 8 (1) The Central Admission Committee of IOSUD UAIC, which consists of the Rector of the University as president, the Director of the Council for Doctoral Studies (CSUD), the Vice-Rector for Doctoral Studies, Digitization, UAIC Branches and Extensions, and a secretary from the Office for Doctoral Studies shall be appointed by the 25th of February, 2023. The Central Admissions Committee shall ensure constant communication with the press and all other media.

(2) The Admission Committees for each Doctoral School, which consist of the Director of the Doctoral School, as president, doctoral supervisors from each field within the doctoral school and a secretary will also be established by the 25th of February 2023.

(3) The admission committees are responsible with carrying out the entire admission exam in good conditions and are required to report any unforeseen situations to the Central Admission Committee and to resolve them in cooperation with the Committee. The Central University Admissions Committee is based at the Rectorate

(4) The secretariat of the Admission and Appeal Committees is provided by the secretariats of the doctoral schools.

(5) It is compulsory for the admission committee to include the doctoral supervisors of the candidates that compete for the vacant places proposed by the respective doctoral supervisors.

(6) Along with the appointment of the admission committee, a committee responsible with the appeals will also be appointed at the level of each doctoral; this committee will include 3 doctoral supervisors from the Doctoral School who are not part of the admission committee. Where this condition cannot be met, other teaching members of the faculty who have also participated in the doctoral student tutoring committees may be appointed.

(7) The committees are proposed by the Doctoral School Councils and approved by the Council for Doctoral Studies.

Art. 9 The admission committees established at the level of doctoral schools have the following competencies:

- a) to be aware of and comply with the provisions of these Regulations;
- b) to manage the dissemination of information regarding admission (number and distribution of vacant positions, type of admission exams) through various channels (website, leaflets, e-mail, etc.), being responsible for the accuracy of the respective information;
- c) to reply to e-mails received on the addresses specifically assigned for admission within two calendar days;
- d) to organize the registration of candidates;
- e) to train the staff involved in the admission activities;
- f) to ensure the necessary materials for the admission;
- g) to certify the conformity with the original of the identification documents' copies, necessary for the registration, after confronting them with the original, which is to be returned to the candidate;
- h) to organize (as the case may be) the candidates' access to the examination rooms and their supervision during the exams;
- i) to draft the final results of the admission contest (lists of results, registration decisions, etc.).

CHAPTER IV. CANDIDATES' REGISTRATION AND CONDUCT OF THE ADMISSION CONTEST

Art. 10. General provisions for the registration of candidates

(1) The candidates eligible for participation in the admission contest to the doctoral studies are higher education graduates with a bachelor's degree or equivalent of long-term university studies, graduates of a master's degree organized according to Law no. 288/2004, with the subsequent amendments and additions, as well as graduates of studies carried out abroad and recognized by the specialized department within the Ministry of National Education as being the equivalent of least a master's degree. According to the provisions of the National Education Law no. 1/2011 and ministerial petition no. 25/DGIU/25/01/2021, the bachelor's degree of long-term higher education graduates from the period prior to the Bologna system is equivalent to the master's degree in the specialty. Consequently, holders of long-term higher education diplomas have the right to enrol in doctoral studies without having to complete the second cycle of master's studies.

Graduates of Bachelor's programmes for which the duration of studies has not changed after the application of the three-cycle Bologna system cannot enrol in the third cycle of doctoral studies without completing the second cycle (master's degree).

(2) Registration to the admission contest for doctoral studies within IOSUD, in a certain doctoral field, is not conditioned by the field in which the bachelor's or master's degree was obtained, except for cases where the doctoral schools require specific admission conditions. The cumulative total period of the undergraduate and master's degree must correspond to the accumulation of at least 300 transferable credits (ECTS).

Art. 11

(1) Candidates' registration is carried out in a location specially designated by each faculty.

(2) According to legal provisions, each faculty shall establish measures regarding equal opportunities for people with disabilities, ensuring, where necessary, additional support adapted to the needs of this category of candidates, facilitating their access into the higher education institutions.

(3) Throughout the admission contest, the admission committees and the appeals committees appointed by each doctoral school, shall be provided with appropriately equipped locations for the registration of candidates and the exams proper. The locations in which the admissions and appeals committees operate must be suitable for editing, multiplying, retrieving, keeping and disseminating documents containing the proposed topics, storing and evaluating the written works of the candidates, all of which shall be carried out in safe conditions.

(4) Access to premises where activities related to the admission contest for doctoral studies are carried out is strictly forbidden to persons who are not involved in the conduct of the admission contest.

(5) It is strictly forbidden to use mobile devices or other means of communication in the rooms where the subjects are prepared, in the examination rooms or in the rooms where candidates' theses are assessed/re-assessed.

(6) The topics/subjects of the oral and/or written tests remain secret until the beginning of the examination.

(7) Registration for the admission contest can be done either in person, based on the identity card/ passport and other documents required for registration or, on behalf of the candidate, or by another person based on a power of attorney.

(8) Candidates can also apply by e-mail. In this case, candidates should send scanned PDF copies of the required documents by e-mail to the secretariats of the doctoral schools (e-mail addresses are available on the UAIC website); the bachelor's and master's degrees and the transcripts or supplements to the degrees should be submitted after registration, within a certain time frame set by each doctoral school. Candidates will be responsible for the authenticity and correspondence between the digital/scanned documents and the originals to be submitted in the candidate's file

(1) The following candidates are eligible for registration and participation to the admission exam for doctoral studies:

- a) European citizens who started the procedures for the recognition of previous studies at The National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (CNRED), but have not yet received the confirmation from the Ministry, may register based on an affidavit regarding this process;
- b) Candidates from third countries who have applied to the General Directorate for International Relations and European Affairs (DGRIAE) to obtain the Letter of Acceptance to studies, but have not yet received the confirmation from the Ministry, may register based on an affidavit regarding this process.

(2) The above mentioned candidates may be declared admitted on the condition that they present the documents issued by CNRED, respectively by DGRIAE, until the end of the Advanced University Training Programme (PPUA) in the first semester. Failure to submit these documents by the specified deadline will result in candidates losing their conditional admission status.

Art. 13

(1) The content of the registration file:

- the standard application form indicating the option for a doctoral supervisor;
- curriculum vitae;
- the list of scientific papers published by the candidate (if applicable);
- language certificate issued by the Faculty of Letters of “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iasi, no more than 2 years prior to the admission exam; except for those candidates who have completed a single or double major in a foreign language, of an accredited faculty, or those who present DALF, TOEFEL or other internationally recognized certificates; The required language level is set by each doctoral school, but cannot be lower than B1;
- original* and copy of the birth certificate;

- original* and copy of the identity card;
- original* and copy of the marriage certificate/ document that certifies the change of name, if applicable;
- original* and copy of high school diploma or equivalent;
- original* and copy of bachelor degree and transcript of records or diploma supplement;
- original* and copy of master's degree and transcript of records or diploma supplement (master's graduates from the current academic year can register based on the graduation certificate and academic records issued by the secretariats of the faculties);
- other specific documents (Law, Theology, Sports Science and Physical Education);
- receipt for payment of the registration fee;
- non-disclosure agreement.

* The original documents will be returned to the candidate after the member/ members of the Admission Committee certify the conformity of the copies with the original.

(2) The registration files for the admission to doctoral studies will be kept in secure conditions (secured lockers, with access only for authorized personnel), throughout the admission process.

(3) Candidates belonging to the Roma ethnic group are required to submit a written recommendation issued by one of the legally constituted Roma organizations, irrespective of its field of activity, stating that the candidate belongs to the Roma ethnic group and not necessarily to the said organization.

(4) Registration fees range between 50 and 500 RON, as proposed by each doctoral school, with the approval of the Board of Trustees and the UAIC Senate. The amount of the fee will be posted on the web pages of the doctoral schools, together with the admission conditions. The registration fee is not refundable.

(5) Candidates aged up to 25 years who are supported financially by their parents and whose parents are or were employed as teaching or auxiliary teaching staff (either still working, retired or deceased), are exempt from paying the registration fee.

(6) Exemption from the application fee is only granted on the basis of supporting documents submitted by the candidates to the admission committee. The exemption is approved by the admission committees of each Doctoral School.

(7) False statements or use of forgery in connection with any document in the admission file will lead to disqualification from the admission contest and the application of the provisions of the Criminal Code.

Art. 14

(1) The contest tests, written and/or oral, as well as the evaluation, selection and further ranking criteria are established by the Doctoral School Councils (Annex 2). The topic and bibliography of the tests are established by the Doctoral School Councils for each doctoral field, following the proposals of all doctoral supervisors in that field.

(2) The minimum average for admission to doctoral studies is 8 (eight). Candidates must obtain an average of at least 7 (seven) in each examination. Doctoral schools may impose conditions regarding the admission average grade that can be higher than 8 (eight). The average is calculated to two decimals, without rounding.

(3) In the case of equal grades, the candidates are ranked following further selection criteria established by each doctoral school. At least 3 criteria must be established before enrolment (average grade of the Master's graduation examination, average grade of the Bachelor's graduation examination, cumulative average grade for the Master's degree academic years, etc.). When it is not possible to rank the candidates according to their average grade of the Master's graduation examination / cumulative average grade for the Master's degree academic years, the ranking will be established according to the average grade of the Bachelor's graduation examination / cumulative average grade for the Bachelor's degree academic years.

(4) Appeals can be submitted within 24 hours after the publication of the results. No appeals are allowed for oral, sports or artistic tests. The decision of the appeal committee is final.

Art. 15

(1) For doctoral studies organized in a foreign language, the candidate is required to present a certificate of proficiency issued by the Faculty of Letters of "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iași, no more than 2 years prior to the admission exam or submit proof of graduation from a single or double major in a foreign language, at an accredited faculty, provided that the respective language is mentioned on the diploma. Other internationally recognized language certificates are also accepted.

(2) Doctoral schools shall ensure the transparency of the evaluation and selection procedures for all candidates and guarantee full access to information, also by publishing it on the institution's website.

(3) The presidents of the committees are responsible for the good conduct of the admission contest, in compliance with the quality norms, university ethics and the legislation in force.

(4) The information about the admission shall be published on the website of each doctoral school and shall be visibly displayed.

CHAPTER V. FINAL RESULTS OF THE ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION OF THE DOCTORAL STUDENTS

Art. 16

- (1) The candidates who are declared admitted based on the admission results shall be enrolled, for the academic year 2023-2024, by Decision of the UAIC Rector.
- (2) The ranking resulting from the admission will count in the distribution of the public funding positions, these places being allocated to the best ranked candidates in each field, according to the decisions of the admission committees from each doctoral school.
- (3) The results will be displayed in stages, generating at least two types of lists as follows:
 - provisional lists - with the ranking of candidates, generated after admission;
 - final lists - with the ranking of the candidates, generated after the resolution of appeals, containing the final and indisputable results.
- (4) The lists of candidates admitted and enrolled in each field, as well as the lists of rejected candidates shall be made public by each doctoral school on its own notice board and website.
- (5) The results of the admission will be displayed only under the following headings:

A “List of candidates ADMITTED on the positions financed from PUBLIC FUNDING”, within the limit of available positions;

B “List of candidates ADMITTED on TUITION FEE positions”, within the limit of available positions;

C “List of REJECTED candidates”, if applicable.

(6) The lists of admitted candidates and the lists of rejected candidates for each doctoral field shall be displayed, both at the doctoral school premises and on the website, specifying the date and time of posting, only after they have been validated by the Council of the Doctoral School (CSD), Council for Doctoral Studies (CSUD) and the IOSUD management. A copy will be submitted to the Office for Doctoral Studies.

(7) Candidates’ names can only be made public on the lists provided that they have expressed their consent in this respect in the Registration Form.

Art. 17

(1) During the period announced for the confirmation of enrolment, the candidates admitted on public funded places will confirm their enrolment by submitting they original diplomas to the doctoral school; master's degree graduates who completed their study in the academic year 2022 - 2023 will submit the graduation certificate, in original.

(2) After the enrolment approval, the doctoral students are registered in the Unique Matriculation Register (RMU) with a unique number valid for the entire schooling period of the study programme to which they were admitted.

(3) The university database system, E-sims, will be updated with relevant data regarding the doctoral students throughout their doctoral programme, including the academic records and progress, interruptions or extensions of the PhD activity, etc.

(4) The doctoral programme is carried out on the basis of an agreement concluded between the doctoral student and IOSUD-UAIC.

(5) When signing the doctoral studies agreement, the admitted candidates shall submit a bank statement to be used for bank transfers that occur during the programme (scholarships, refunds, prizes, etc.). The banking details will be specified in the doctoral studies agreement, according to the bank statement submitted. The student shall notify the faculty secretariat within 5 working days with regard to any change of the banking details and submit a new bank statement. In exceptional cases, the bank statement may be submitted before the beginning of the academic year.

(6) For the candidates financed through public funding, the scholarships granted by the Ministry of Education as well as those granted by UAIC will be distributed, according to the admission ranking only to full-time PhD candidates who have signed their doctoral studies agreement.

(7) Candidates declared admitted on public funded positions will pay the registration fee in the amount of 60 lei.

(8) Candidates admitted on tuition fee positions are required to pay, according to the schedule established by each faculty, at least 30% of the tuition fee for the first semester of the academic year 2023-2024 and to sign the doctoral studies agreement. After this deadline, candidates who fail to fulfil these obligations will be declared rejected. The positions vacated by these candidates will either be occupied by the next candidates who meet the admission criteria, or will be made available for a new admission session.

Art. 18. The tuition fees are refunded, in case of withdrawal, as follows:

(a) If a candidate admitted for a tuition fee position withdraws from studies within 5 days after signing the agreement, 10% of the tuition fee for the 1st semester becomes non-refundable. If the student withdraws after the 5-day deadline, but before the beginning of the academic year, 15% of the tuition fee for the 1st semester becomes non-refundable. After the beginning of the academic year, the tuition-fee is non-refundable.

(b) The tuition fee paid by candidates admitted on the tuition fee positions shall be refunded in full if the tuition fee student has occupied a public funded place, following the redistribution.

CHAPTER VI. FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 19 (1) Doctoral studies are conducted either in Romanian or, with the approval of the Doctoral School Council and the IOSUD management, in an international language.

(2) For the doctoral students whose research topics require the supervision of more than one doctoral supervisor from different fields or in case the research project is also conducted in another institution, a joint supervision doctoral programme can be established. In this case, supervision is ensured, besides the doctoral supervisor from the doctoral school where the doctoral student is registered, by one or more doctoral supervisors, based on a joint supervision agreement concluded between the parties.

(3) Both the files of the admitted candidates and those of the rejected candidates shall be kept in safe conditions (lockers, metal files, provided with locks) and will only be accessed by authorized staff members (members of commissions, staff of the general secretariat, staff of the faculty secretariat, staff of the Office for Doctoral Studies within the university). The documents recording the grades and the scoring or correction notes, respectively other documents of the admission commissions shall be kept under the same safe conditions.

Furthermore, the security of the computerized information systems used in the processing of data and information related to the admission exams shall also be fully ensured.

In case special conditions occur during the admission period (a state of emergency or alert, restrictions with regard to the free movement of persons, quarantined localities, etc.), the registration of candidates and the admission exams for doctoral studies can be held on-line using the institutional platforms of the University. The results of the exams conducted online (specialized theoretical knowledge, interview) shall be recorded by the admissions commissions and archived by the faculties for a period of 5 years. Candidates shall be informed that the on-line admission exam will be recorded with the prior consent of each candidate. Candidates who refuse to consent to the recording cannot participate in the admission exam for doctoral studies.

(4) Any provision regarding admission to the doctoral program transmitted by the Ministry of Education or approved by the University Senate shall be brought to the attention of the Doctoral Schools.

(5) These regulations for the organization and conduct of the admission to doctoral studies has been approved by the Senate of “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași and applies for the academic year 2023-2024.
